THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT

A.

Fill in fitting endings for these sentences.

1.	To safeguard marriage and the home, and to promote purity,
	God gave the Sixth	Commandm	ent
2.	Marriage was instituted by	God	·
3.	Marriage is a lifelong union formed by	and	woman
4.	Husband and wife are to remain together	as long as they both shall	live
5.	The only true grounds for divorce is	unfaithful	ness

B.

Read the sentence. Then underline the word that could be used in place of the italicized word.

1.	The Sixth Commandment asks that we lead a pure life.
	active	diligent	decent
2.	Our actions, words, and thoughts ought to be proper .
	intelligent	loving	careful
3.	King David committed sexual immorality with Uriah's wife.
	lust	adultery	deception
4.	God ordained marriage.
	sanctified	instituted	blessed
5.	If a husband gives his love to another woman, his wife has just grounds for separation		has just grounds for separation .
	desertion	hatred	divorce

C.

Tell why each of these actions could lead to gross impurity.

1. Thinking impure thoughts	6. Associating with sinful companions
2. Looking at indecent pictures	7. Reading stories with immoral plots
3. Playing explicit video games	8. Idling away time
4. Telling or listening to dirty jokes	9. Dressing scantily
5. Watching indecent movies	10. Dancing suggestively
Answers will vary.

CPH Catechism Study Unit 2 © 2018 Concordia Publishing House. Permission granted to purchaser to reproduce this page for use in educational settings. All other rights reserved. Adapted from Living God's Word Today: Answer Key, p. 15, © 1947, 1997, published 2014.