THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Look at the cross-reference section to the Ten Commandments in a Bible that contains margin references (see Exodus 20:1–17). These references help you expand your understanding of the commandment as well as show how Jesus used the commandment in His teaching.

1. Select one commandment and write it in your own words.

2. List here other Bible references to this commandment. Look up each reference. In the space provided, write the new information or insights these verses add. If there is a New Testament reference, find the context of how Jesus used this commandment in His teaching.

3. If Jesus used this commandment directly in His teaching, record the use here.

4. Finish the following statement: From my study, I believe that this commandment means . . .
