

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT

A. Definitions

Draw a line from each word to the correct definition.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 1. God's Name | call upon God to witness the truth of what you say and to punish you if you do not tell the truth. |
| 2. Curse | to speak untruths. |
| 3. Swear | that by which He is called and known. |
| 4. Use satanic arts | use religion as a cloak for hypocrisy. |
| 5. Lie | speak evil of God; wish evil to ourselves or to others. |
| 6. Deceive by God's name | fortune-telling and the like. |
| 7. False oath | swear to commit a sin. |
| 8. Blasphemous oath | swear to that of which you are not sure. |
| 9. Frivolous oath | swear to a lie. |
| 10. Oath in uncertain things | swear thoughtlessly. |

B. Conclusions

If the three sentences lead to a correct conclusion, underline the conclusion.

If the conclusion is incorrect, draw a line through it.

1. I dishonor God's name if I continually use it thoughtlessly.
God's name is holy.
God's name stands for Him.
Therefore, if I continually use God's name thoughtlessly, I dishonor God Himself.
2. Words of praise spoken insincerely are meaningless.
Words of thanks spoken thoughtlessly are useless.
Aiden curses habitually, without thinking what he says.
Therefore, cursing is sin only if we really mean what we say.
3. Godless people do not care if they offend God openly.
Godless people often use God's name in vain.
Cursing is often a fruit of a godless life.
Therefore, by cursing I give the impression that I am godless.
