

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT

A. Definitions

Draw a line from each word to the correct definition.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 1. God's Name | call upon God to witness the truth of what you say and to punish you if you do not tell the truth. |
| 2. Curse | to speak untruths. |
| 3. Swear | that by which He is called and known. |
| 4. Use satanic arts | use religion as a cloak for hypocrisy. |
| 5. Lie | speaking evil of God; wish evil to ourselves or to others. |
| 6. Deceive by God's name | fortune-telling and the like. |
| 7. False oath | swear to commit a sin. |
| 8. Blasphemous oath | swear to that of which you are not sure. |
| 9. Frivolous oath | swear to a lie. |
| 10. Oath in uncertain things | swear thoughtlessly. |

B. Conclusions

If the three sentences lead to a correct conclusion, underline the conclusion.

If the conclusion is incorrect, draw a line through it.

- I dishonor God's name if I continually use it thoughtlessly.
God's name is holy.
God's name stands for Him.
Therefore, if I continually use God's name thoughtlessly, I dishonor God Himself.
- Words of praise spoken insincerely are meaningless.
Words of thanks spoken thoughtlessly are useless.
Aiden curses habitually, without thinking what he says.
Therefore, ~~cursing is sin only if we really mean what we say.~~
- Godless people do not care if they offend God openly.
Godless people often use God's name in vain.
Cursing is often a fruit of a godless life.
Therefore, by cursing I give the impression that I am godless.
