

THE LORD'S PRAYER

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST PETITION

A. THE INTRODUCTION

Use these words to fill in the blank spaces.

believer	loves	help	selfish	unbeliever
troubles	hear	Our	grant	hesitate
neighbor	Father	Lord

1. Our Father who art in heaven.
2. When I say "Our," I am also praying for my neighbor.
3. My neighbor is any person who needs my prayers, a believer as well as an unbeliever.
4. My praying would be selfish if I prayed only for myself.
5. Jesus wants me to address God as Father because He loves me.
6. I need never hesitate to come to my heavenly Father to tell Him my troubles, for I know He is always willing to hear me.
7. "Who art in heaven" should remind me that the heavenly Father is the Lord over all, who can both help and grant my requests.

B. THE FIRST PETITION

Draw a line through the three sentences that have no direct connection with the First Petition.

1. God's name is as holy as God is.
2. Lord, enable my pastor to preach Your Word with power.
3. God's names tell us briefly who He is.
4. Lord, may Your Word be kept holy.
5. ~~All good gifts come from God.~~
6. Teaching false doctrine profanes God's name.
7. ~~God will forgive any repentant believer.~~
8. A God-pleasing life serves to hallow God's name.
9. ~~Lord, protect my body from danger.~~
10. Lord, grant that I may live according to Your Word.
