

Lesson 14

The Last Call
Matthew 25:31–46;
Revelation 22:6–21

ACTIVITIES

Choose from the following activities and crafts to help connect Bible learning to life.

Coming Soon Poster

Talk about how new movies or TV shows are sometimes advertised with a “Coming Soon” poster. Challenge children to make their own “Coming Soon” poster for Jesus’ return, including details from Scripture. For children who are skilled at using technology, allow them to use digital tools.

Finger Play

Hold up the correct fingers for each line. Have children copy you. Say, Five little children in the neighborhood. The first one said, “I’m glad I’m going to heaven.” The second one said, “How do you know?” The third one said, “Jesus loves and forgives me so!” The fourth one said, “He took my sins away.” The fifth one said, “Let’s clap and shout hooray!” Then off went the children to sing and praise God.

Flower Basket Craft

Give each child one and a half paper plates. Tape the half plate to the front of the other plate to make a basket. Have the children draw a cross on it and decorate it. Punch a hole at the top and thread with yarn for a handle. Make flowers: stack two pieces of tissue paper; accordion-fold them and tie in the middle; pull out the layers; attach pipe-cleaner stems. Put the flowers in the basket. Say, Your baskets can remind you that when you are kind and show love to others, you are showing love to Jesus.

Happy Dance

Give children scarves or strips of colorful crepe paper. Play “He’s Coming” (digital resource center), or search online for hymns and songs about heaven to play for the children. Have children dance or move to music. Talk about the happy day when Jesus returns and how we can look forward to living with Him forever in the new heaven and earth.
